

National Weather Service SEVERE WEATHER SPOTTER CLASS

Wednesday, MARCH 19, 2014

4:30 p.m. OR 7:00 p.m.
(two sessions)

Antioch High School Auditorium
1133 Main Street, Antioch, IL

hosted by the

Emergency Management Agencies of Antioch and Lake County

In conjunction with

Antioch Community High School & HS District 117

Presenter – Matt Friedlein – Lead Forecaster, National Weather Service
Mr. Friedlein, from the National Weather Service will discuss the nature of severe weather systems, the do's and don'ts during severe weather, how to report severe weather to the National Weather Service, and the role of trained spotters in helping communities and the National Weather Service.

No Fee! No Pre-registration! Register at the door!

Parking – please use the parking lot on the south side of Antioch High School, adjacent to the auditorium.

Questions may be directed to:

Lee Shannon, III (Antioch EMA)

lshannon@antioch.il.gov

847-395-1000

Kent McKenzie (Lake County EMA)

kmckenzie@lakecountyil.gov

847-377-7100
